

Medicaid Policy and Research Conference 2007

State Health Care Innovation: Cost, Quality, and Access

This year's conference seeks to explore the many ways states are driving innovation in health policy and public health, with special attention to the effects on vulnerable populations. Topics to be explored include local health reforms and approaches to reducing health disparities as well as quality of care, public health, and prevention for vulnerable populations.

Confirmed Speakers Include:

- ❖ Andrew Agwunobi, MD, MBA
Secretary, Florida Agency for Health Care Administration
- ❖ Earl Fox, MD, MPH
Professor, Dept. of Epidemiology and Public Health
Miller School of Medicine, University of Miami
Former Deputy Assistant Secretary for Health, U.S. Department for Health and Human Services
- ❖ Ana Viamonte Ros, MD, MPH
Surgeon General and Secretary, Florida Department of Health
- ❖ Bob Brown Barrios
Policy Coordinator, Health and Human Services Policy Unit
Office of Governor Charlie Crist
- ❖ April Young, PhD
Director of Community Development, The Growth Partnership
The Collins Center
- ❖ Melinda Abrams, MS
Senior Program Officer, Child Development and Preventive Care Program
Commonwealth Fund

Register now at www.fcmu.phhp.ufl.edu

Registration is free!

*JUNE 28 - 29, 2007
Tallahassee, Florida*